About the expo

As globalization intensifies, so does competition among businesses. Innovation is essential to survive in the current climate. The INDIA INTERNATIONAL CNC & TOOLING IIT EXPO is a multi-faced trade event offering state-of-the-art trends, technologies and new innovations.

In this exhibition, exhibitors will get an opportunity to showcase a wide range of products and services such as metal cutting machine tools: all kinds of CNC machine tools, machining centers, industrial robots and flexible manufacturing cell; lathes, milling, grinding, drilling, boring, prepared tooth machine, screw machine tools, cutting tools, special machine tools, machine tools and other combinations; electricity processing, laser processing and other special machines etc.

The objective of organizing this event is to provide a platform to the exhibitors to present their organization to a highly internationalized audience focusing on investments in the sector, increase their brand's recognition, and develop new business relationships and gather business leads. It brings together professionals and industry experts to share valuable experienced knowledge and innovative ideas to make advance in the instrumentation industry.

Conference rooms and business lounges for manufacturer dealer meet and company presentations have been incorporated in the plan for the CNC & TOOLING EXPO to promote company message/ launching of new products, technology, services and appoint dealers and build contacts.

A perfect place to build your professional network with existing suppliers and connect with potential suppliers and partners.
